

HERALD

31/3/82

Mr John Sutherland . . . promoted to vice-chairman.

MARCONI CHANGES

MARCONI RADAR has announced top management changes.

Mr John Sutherland, Radar managing director, has been promoted to vice-chairman of the Marconi Company Ltd.

Mr Keith Chittenden succeeds him as managing director.

Cheshire-born Mr Sutherland, 59, became managing director in 1969 and under his leadership the company won a Queen's Award for Export Achievement in 1980.

Mr Sutherland is a governor of Chelmsford County High School and lives in Danbury with his wife and three children.

Ipswich-born Mr Chittenden, 48, became an employee of Marconi Space and Defence Systems in Frimley, Surrey, in 1962.

In early 1981 he was appointed general manager at Frimley.

He is married and lives in Hampshire, although he plans to move closer to his new place of work at Chelmsford.